TL 1925

SEMINAR

on

Human Rights Information and Education

for the

Timorese Community in Melbourne

Saturday 7 January, 10 am - 5 pm

124 Napier St, Fitzroy

Jose Ramos-Horta, Executive Director and Lecturer, Diplomacy Training Progamme at the University of NSW and Expert of the UN International Service for Human Rights in Geneva will lecture on human rights standards, procedures and protection mechanisms.

Bishop Hilton Deakin, Chairman of the Advisory Board of the East Timor Centre for Human Rights will give the keynote address.

Pat Walsh, Director of the ACFOA Human Rights Office, will speak on Australian Non-Government Organisations and their role in human rights.

Jacinto dos Santos, Human Rights Officer of the East Timor Human Rights Centre will explain how the Centre will work.

Emilia Pires will tell of her experiences as an East Timorese eye-witness at the UN Human Rights Commission in Geneva.

The East Timor Centre for Human Rights Education, Information and Training will be launched.

The programme will be conducted in Portuguese and English.

A light lunch will be served.

For further information telephone 416 2960.